

Southeastern Division of CAPA

Author's Page ~ Bill Rockwell

Retired Physician (Allergist & Immunologist), Bill has written many medical articles, abstracts, and medical chapters for textbooks, and now writes fiction. He enjoys writing mysteries and fantasy novels.

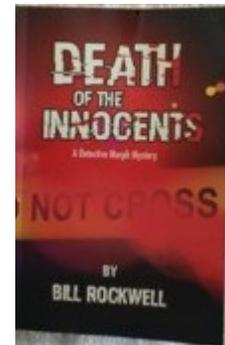

"Not Privileged to Know"

Corinne Day's twin sister who is a private detective in Washington, is murdered under suspicious circumstances and when powerful US Senators get the case closed quickly, Corinne must investigate the murder alone. Her problem: she always had a psychic connection with her sister, and when her twin is killed, she finds herself suddenly alone for the first time. She must now deal with life's problems for the first time in her life alone, and survive the numerous attempts on her life while she tries to both solve the murder and discover the political conspiracy behind her twin's murder.

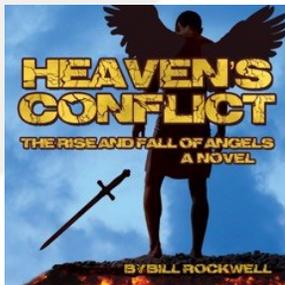

"Death of the Innocents, A Detective Murph Mystery"

Murph investigates the murder of a young woman from out of town. His investigation leads him into the Pro-Life/Pro-Choice controversy. While investigating the abortion clinic where the victim had her recent abortion, he discovers his 14 year-old daughter in their waiting room. Although not there for an abortion, he soon discovers his daughter is at the center of the complex circumstances surrounding the murder, and both become swept up in the investigation. He must solve the murders that occur before his daughter becomes the next victim.

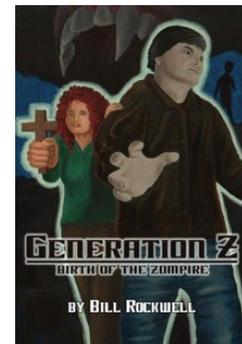

"Heaven's Conflict, The Rise and Fall of Angels"

God tries to save his Chief Archangel, Lucifer, before being forced to condemn him to Hell forever. When God fails to convince Lucifer, He sends the other Archangels who struggle to save their friend. Thus begins the biggest confrontation ever with the control of Heaven and Earth at stake.

"Generation Z: Birth of the Zompire"

Damon Drake is stalked, and bitten by a vampire, and is then bitten by the Vampire's zombies. He becomes a hybrid, a Zompire, part Vampire and part Zombie. While hunting the vampire who attacked him, he must convince his girlfriend of several years and the police that he is not a danger to time, or society, and convince his girlfriend that he can still love her, although she's "only" a human.

You may contact Bill Rockwell by email:
billrockwell203@gmail.com

