"Jess and Zoey"

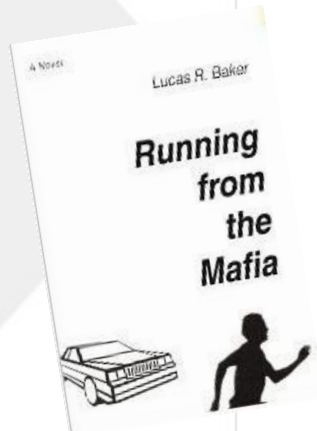

This book is Your Adult-Fantasy about Jess, a young girl who finds a book of magic in a forgotten root cellar. She learns magic and has adventures as she grows up.

The book is filled with a strange language that nobody knows, and she is able to track the book back to a woman who was imprisoned during the Salem Witch Trials. Could this be magic? Using the Internet, Jess learns this new language until her little sister Zoey is kidnapped. Since the authorities are unable to find Zoey, Jess must use her limited skills in magic and go out on a journey to rescue her sister.

"Running From The Mafia"

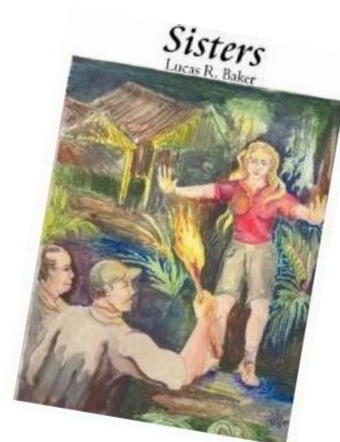

Based on actual events, this story details the soap opera lives of Mike, a depressed thirty-year old, and Tonya, a beautiful eighteen-year old, as they intertwine in a decade long friendship. They endure good times, bad times and strange times, until an old man is tied to his bed and beaten to death. Mike determines that Jerry, Tonya's younger brother, has committed the homicide and turns him in to the police. What Mike doesn't know is that Jerry is working for the Mafia, who come after Mike to kill him... but somehow he survives.

“No Malice Towards Humanity”

In the future, Nick is an assassin who has a computer implanted in his brain that gives him complete control over his body. But, he doesn't like his job. He wants a real life and, when his chance comes, he fakes his own death and assumes the identity of someone else. But, things are not so simple. In his pursuit of a wife, he must deal with new and unexpected challenges when he decides to live outside the fenced-in Utopian cities in the non-citizen zone. When the authorities discover that he is still alive, he is forced to work for them in exchange for keeping his new life. But, the new threat he faces has stolen the components to a nuclear weapon and may be even more dangerous than Nick.
