Author's Page ~ Patti Brooks

Author Writes Horse-Related Adult Fiction

Patti Brooks sold her first article to a national magazine at age 16 and she's been writing ever since. After years and hundreds of articles, mostly in trade journals, her first novel Mountain Shadows was published. Since then, there has been a trilogy of mysteries set in the CT horse world. Patti handles public relations for SE CAPA.

Mountain Shadows: An Adirondack Novel of Courage, Danger, and Love

This is a riveting story of danger, courage and love set in the exciting Prohibition era in New York State's Adirondack Mountains.

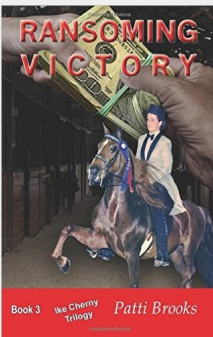

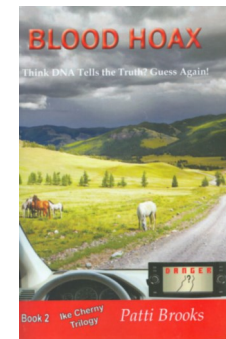

Fame & Deceit (Book 1)

All horse trainer, Ike Cherny, wants is to turn his filly into a World Champion, but he is constantly side-lined by murder...and worse.

Blood Hoax (Book 2)

Will Ike Cherny find his fiancé before the Nardozzi mob family? And who is using illegal stallions in the breeding shed? Does DNA really tell the truth?

Ransoming Victory (book 3)

Will Ike Cherny have the courage to survive the shenanigans of his best client and reclaim his reputation? What is the cost of a championship?
